

Archaeobacteria

Archaeobacteria – This is a collection of ancient bacteria. Look for rods, cocci, and involuted, often square-shaped cells. The species represented here are extreme halophiles, salt-lovers, and methangens, able to live off of methane.